Associated Builders and Contractors Apprenticeship Trust Fund Names New Trustees

Harleysville, PA – The Southeast PA Chapter Associated Builders and Contractors \(ABC SEPA\) Apprenticeship Trust Fund named Bill Salmon, vice president of Wells Fargo Insurance Services USA, Inc. in King of Prussia and Sandro Corrado, vice president of Corrado and Sons, Inc. in Souderton as new trustees for 2010. The Board of Trustees assists with the governing responsibilities of the Apprenticeship Trust Fund's training activities.

"I am grateful for this opportunity to govern one of the best apprenticeship training programs in the Delaware Valley," said Corrado. "The training center provides nationally and state approved construction craft training and apprenticeship programs to more than 250 young adults each year. With the expanded leadership team, our goal is to grow the school's attendance and offerings in the coming year."

The Apprenticeship Training Center is a 501(c)(3) non-profit construction craft training center offering both conceptual (classroom) and contextual (lab-work) training in Harleysville. Students take classes one day a week and gain on-the-job training four days a week. Classes run for 10 to 12 weeks in the spring and fall semesters for three or four years depending on the trade.

In addition to Salmon and Corrado, the 2010 Board of Trustees includes:
Chairman: Robert T. Heck, Thompson Masonry Contracting Co., Pottstown, Pa.
James R. Happ, Happ Contractors, Inc., Doylestown, Pa.
Thomas Zipfel, Worth and Company, Inc., Pipersville, Pa.
Vernon Reisinger, Donald E. Reisinger, Inc., West Chester, Pa.
Chris Kalbach, E. Allen Reeves, Inc., Abington, Pa.
Special Advisor to the Board: Ron Bauguess, Tri-M Group, LLC, Kennett Square, Pa.
