PRESS RELEASE

Associated Builders & Contractors, Inc. Announces its 2008 Construction & Economic Forecast Event

East Norriton, PA – Associated Builders and Contractors Inc. Southeast Pennsylvania Chapter (ABC SEPA) announced today its Annual Construction & Economic Forecast Dinner being held on April 16, 2008 at the Radnor Valley Country Club in Villanova Pa.

This dinner is one of the chapter's most well-attended events and this year includes three knowledgeable and successful business executives as the speakers. They include: John Gattuso, senior vice president of the National & Urban Development for Liberty Property Trust; Bernard Dagenais, editor of The Philadelphia Business Journal; and Anthony Naccarato, principal of O'Donnell & Naccarato. The speakers will focus their discussion on the latest trends and the future of the economy for the construction and development industries in our area.

"After the success of last year's Construction & Economic Forecast Dinner and with the impressive lineup of speakers that we have this year, we expect this event to be another well-received event," said Bob Herbein, 2008 Chairman of the board for ABC SEPA. "The extensive knowledge of these three industry leaders from their different perspectives in the industry and business community will make for an insightful evening."

Hailing from various fields, the guest speakers are each groundbreakers in their fields. Mr. Gattuso has been an active marketing representative in and around the Philadelphia area and has been involved in many projects including the Waterfront Development. As the editor of the region's top business magazine, Mr. Dagenais will share his views on the status of the Philadelphia area's economy. Mr. Naccarato has worked as both a project engineer and manager for O'Donnell and Naccarato and is a partner there.

The Construction & Economic Forecast Dinner will begin with a cocktail reception at 5:00 p.m. and will be followed by dinner at 6:00 p.m. with the program starting at 7:00 p.m. Tickets are $75 per attendee. For more information or to register for the event, contact ABC SEPA at (610) 279-6666.
