East Norriton, PA – Southeast Pennsylvania Chapter Associated Builders and Contractors' (ABC) Political Action Committee today endorsed Craig Williams (Rep.) of Concord Township, Delaware County, Pa., for the 7th Congressional District race.

"ABC is proud to support Craig Williams for Congress," said Bob Herbein, ABC's 2008 chairman of the board. "We believe that he will be a strong advocate for Free Enterprise and Merit Construction."

A Marine combat veteran who served in the first Gulf War, Williams later served as a federal prosecutor and is currently a litigation specialist with Saul Ewing LLP in the firm's Chesterbrook, Pa. office.

"Williams understands the importance of economic growth and is committed to lower taxes, affordable health care and a vibrant national energy policy. Families, small business owners and their employees in Pennsylvania will all benefit from his strong economic leadership," said Herbein.

The 7th District of Pennsylvania is comprised of most of Delaware County and parts of Montgomery and Chester counties. The seat is currently held by Democrat incumbent Rep. Joe Sestak of Edgemont, Pa.
